THE NEWSLETTER FOR MONKSPATH JUNIOR & INFANT SCHOOL

Dear Parent/Carer

December 2016

A final update from me before we all break up this week for a well-earned rest.

I am sure like me, you were over whelmed with the most beautiful singing that took place over the last week from all of the children. The fun and laughter that the children have had during their Christmas parties has been ringing throughout school, a sure sign that the Christmas festivities are officially upon us!

As we lead up to the Christmas holidays, I wanted to take the time to wish you a very happy and peaceful Christmas. I hope you get the opportunity amongst the frenzy, to spend some precious time with your families and friends.

It has been an extremely busy term and I am sure the children are looking forward to having time off so that they can recharge their batteries before they return to school on Wednesday 4th January.

On behalf of all of us we would like to thank you for all your kind wishes, cards and gifts. You are all very generous in what is a very expensive time of year.

W J Hutchinson
Headteacher

*Merry Christmas and Happy New Year
